NEW PROGRAMS
Over the past few years, we’ve added several special programs to the Honors College experience that give students the chance to expand on their academics. They include the Honors Program in Business, William Aiken Fellows Society, and the International Scholars Program.

LITERACY OUTREACH INITIATIVE
We had 100% participation this fall as Beyond George Street students addressed the problem of literacy development in the Charleston area by instilling a love of reading in fourth graders! Our freshmen visited local schools throughout the semester, then invited those students to campus in December.

SEND US YOUR UPDATES!
How much has changed since you crossed The Cistern? Find out what your classmates and friends are doing and share your own updates with us! Be sure to keep the Alumni Association apprised of where you are and what you are doing.

STUDY ABROAD IN CUBA!!!
William Aiken Fellow Levi Vonk ’13 is spending the spring in Cuba with three other Honors College students. Follow them at Viva La Vonk!

DID YOU KNOW?
We Have An Advisory Board
The newly formed Honors College Advisory Board will provide unique opportunities for student development and enrichment beyond the classroom, and will also create a strong alumni community and support system for the College.

Dean Newell is Retiring
After 34 years of teaching at the College and 13 years overseeing the Honors College, our dean will be retiring this summer. While we’ll miss him greatly, we appreciate all that Dean Newell has done to shape the Honors College into what it is today. Read his farewell note!

NATIONALLY COMPETITIVE AWARDS
Twenty-one Honors College students were recognized at the Nationally Competitive Awards Reception, a campus-wide event at which students who have achieved excellence outside of the classroom are honored.

PRESENTATION EXPERIENCE
Seven of the 21 College of Charleston presenters at this year’s Moore Conference, 30 of the students who presented at the School of Sciences and Mathematics poster session, and five of the 18 students who participated in 2012 English Day were Honors College students!

SUMMER RESEARCH
19 Honors College students were awarded Summer Undergraduate Research with Faculty (SURF) grants to study everything from the spirituality of agriculture to the degradation of Viagra ingredients!
